Spectacular Home For A Discerning Buyer

Here is the home you have been waiting for, located in the beautiful, luxury golf community of Crow Creek in Calabash, NC. This stunning home with two primary suites and an oversized 3-car garage is loaded with high-end finishes. When you enter the double doors, you will be impressed with the open and airy living space with high, vaulted ceilings, linear fireplace with stone surround to the ceiling and grand sliding doors leading to the rear patio area. These very special doors can be opened completely, folded to the side, or left as-is to allow for a single door egress. Graced with engineered hardwood throughout and a modern color palette, this home is move-in ready for a new set of owners. The kitchen is ideal for those who love to prepare meals and/or entertain, with its massive island and plenty of counter space. The island contains additional storage with cabinets on the front side as well. The trimmings are just stunning, with custom two-toned cabinetry, quartz counters, a white farmhouse sink beneath a window, pot filler, marble tile backsplash and high end appliances.
